President Is Alarmed Over Rising Prices

By PHILIP J. KEUPER
(AP Business News Writer)

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson expressed concern during the week over the prospect of rising prices.

For the second time in recent months, he indicated to the steel industry that he would not be happy if steel prices were boosted.

Aides said the President thought that sharply higher steel company profits, plus the growing threat of cheaper foreign steel, would make it hard for the industry to justify price increases.

Top steel executives such as U.S. Steel's Roger Blough and Bethlehem Steel's Edmund F. Martin have complained that the industry makes too little money in relation to its vast investment.

As the pre-election controversy developed, Bethlehem, the nation's second-largest steel producer, reported third-quarter earnings of $36.2 million, more than double its profits in the July-August-September period last year. Earlier in the week, U.S. Steel, the biggest producer, reports a 14 per cent rise in third-quarter profits to $55 million.

Talk about high steel prices has bubbled up strongly in recent weeks. Some increases have followed but these affect only about 5 per cent of the market.

There was renewed price talk during the week, too, in the nonferrous metals industry, where prices of copper, aluminum, lead, zinc and tin have gone up in response to brisk demand and shrinking supplies. All but aluminum have moved up this month and the president of Reynolds Metals Co., Joseph N. McConnell, predicted aluminum increases before long.

Johnson twice during the week called for moderation by labor and industry in wage and price demands, to keep the economy from overheating. The nation's business expansion is now heading into its 45th straight month.

Inflationary concern was also voiced by the nation's bankers, meeting in Miami. It is too easy today, said the American Bankers Association, for the average man to borrow money and obtain other credit. The ample money supply may start buyers outbidding each other for goods and services, thereby raising prices. The bankers urged a tightening of credit through the federal reserve system.

The automobile industry, meanwhile, inched ahead toward full production as General Motors workers voted to accept a three-year contract. Still idle were about 15 of GM's 23 car assembly plants where plant-labor agreements remained to be worked out.

FBI Won't Police Conway County

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U.S. Atty. Robert D. Smith Jr. of Little Rock said Thursday the FBI could not police the polls in Conway County in next Tuesday's election.

Sheriff Marlin Hawkins and the Better Government League, which opposes him, sent separate telegrams this week asking for federal supervision of the election.

Acting U.S. Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach told all U.S. attorneys to keep their offices open election day to receive and act promptly on reports of violations of federal election laws. Smith said he would do this.

An Ideal Employee for 43 Years Tells About Trouble in Erecting Okay Cement Plant

By MARY ANITA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

Do you want to hear an Ideal story? One that's really Okay? Then, have a talk with Tom Dodson, 1405 South Pine, who worked for the Ideal Cement Co. 43 years before his retirement in 1956.

This past October 2 marked the 55th anniversary of the company's establishment at nearby Okay, but Mr. Dodson had begun working for it several years before in Oklahoma. When exploration was begun in the Howard County area in 1929, Tom Dodson was called on to aid with it. The result was Ideal's original plant, the first major industrial operation in southern Arkansas.

What was the biggest problem these early workers had? "Mud," Mr. Dodson answered vigorously. "Sometimes it took as long as three days to move heavy equipment 500 feet." Ironically, moisture of a different type is the plant's threatened problem today, for the Millwood Dam is to be in the area. At the present time the company is building levees to protect its property from the engulfing water.

From the first blast of 47 tons of dynamite at the Okay plant to its current packaging of more than 4,500 sacks of finished cement per hour, the improved efficiency of operation has been a continuous process. Some of the world's largest pieces of moving machinery and equipment are used plus huge volumes of natural gas and electricity. Calcium carbonate, usually in the form of limestone, is the chief raw material of Ideal Portland cement, and it is obtained from Ideal's quarry. A conveyor belt 5½ miles long — one of the longest in the United States — enables one man to do the work it formerly took eight to perform.

Ideal's relations with its employees and other residents of the area have been excellent. In the 35 years of operation, there has never been a strike at the Okay plant, and lengthy periods of employment are commonplace. In dozens of instances, sons and grandsons of men who were with the company from the beginning are now employed at the plant. Tom Dodson's 43 year tenure is probably one of the longest, but he says Vard Freeman of near Saratoga was with them about 20 years.

According to Mr. Dodson, "Share-croppers, both white and Negro, were all that could be found in the area 35 years ago, and Okay was just a hole in the ground." During the operation of this southern Arkansas industry, employees have come not only from the immediate area of Okay, but from many parts of the U.S.

Byron Thompson, plant manager, feels that Ideal's faith in Arkansas and the cement industry has been amply rewarded and that the company stands on the threshold of unprecedented expansion and prosperity. Sounds like the town really is Okay.

Two Charged for Swindling

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP) — Clyde R. Rhoads, 39, and George S. Brown, both of Hot Springs, went on trial here Thursday on charges of swindling a Glenwood man out of $34,000.

Both have pleaded innocent. The prosecution claims that they told THE Glenwood man that Rhoads had $100,000 in $1,000 bills that he would sell at a discount because he feared the money was cursed.

The man met Brown and Rhoads on Aug. 26, 1963, near Lake Village and gave a sack containing the $34,000 to Rhoads, the prosecution says. Rhoads did not return, the state claims.

Doctors Say Glenn Can Fly Again

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Doctors said today there is no apparent reason why Marine Col. John H. Glenn Jr., ailing the past nine months from an inner ear injury, cannot return to flying.

Glenn, however, reiterated plans to retire.

The astronaut pronounced himself "in better shape than just before my 1962 space light."

Glenn was officially released from Wilford Hall Air Force Hospital this morning after a two-day physical examination that will count as his retirement physical.

The doctors' findings left the door open for Glenn, just promoted to colonel by President Johnson, to retire from the Marine Corps "sometime around the first of the year," he said.

He fell in the bathroom of his Columbus, Ohio, apartment Feb. 26, slamming his head against the rim of the bathtub. The concussion caused an inflammation of the inner ear.

Glenn had resigned Jan. 16 to run for the U.S. Senate from Ohio, but the injury forced his withdrawal from the race.

The freckled, thin-haired veteran talked with a newsmen over breakfast.

Smiling over a bowl of cereal, he said: "Gosh, I feel fine. I'm in excellent shape. You know, after you've been knocked down and finally everything starts shaping up, it makes you feel real good."

"You might say, I ain't mad at nobody," he said with a laugh.

Glenn definitely plans to retire, he said, but will continue to work in the space program on a consultant basis.

After retirement, Glenn plans also to do some traveling abroad, work with the Boy Scouts and devote some time to private business.

He is a director of a soft drink company.

TVs Can't Enter Precinct for Count

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Television network representatives cannot enter voting precincts during the counting of ballots Nov. 3, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has ruled.

Bennett said state law prohibits any one other than a designated poll watcher from being present at that time.

The ruling went to Carl D. McDaniel, secretary of the Pulaski County Board of Election Commissioners, who said he had learned that the Columbia Broadcasting System and possibly others are hiring persons to go to the voting precincts in an effort to obtain early returns.

However, under state law, the precinct totals must be posted on a list at the precinct after the counting is over, and at that time the news representatives may copy them for reporting.

Large Number Votes From Servicemen

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — As many as 1.3 million U.S. servicemen may vote by absentee ballot in next Tuesday's presidential election — about 550,000 more than in 1960, defense officials said today.

Many ballots already are on their way to polling officials by mail from American military men and their families in the United States and overseas.

Officials assigned by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara to get out the military vote said 60 to 65 per cent of the estimated 2 million eligible servicemen may cast absentee ballots.

Four years ago, a total of 735,019 service men voted in this manner — a bit below 40 per cent of the 1,888,597 then eligible.

The Marines have the best record with a 68 per cent voting rate. The Navy came next with 44.2 per cent, the Air Force followed with 38.9 per cent and the Army trailed with 32.4 per cent.

Pentagon officials said hopes for a huge increase in servicemen voting this year stem from actions designed to assure that every man received a federal postcard application for an absentee ballot.

McNamara ordered that commanders make certain an application card was placed in every man's hand. This "in hand" distribution was due to be completed Sept. 25.

Applications for absentee ballots also were available to dependents of servicemen. About 750,000 wives and adult sons and daughters of servicemen are eligible to vote absentee this year, official tabulations show.

All the 50 states and the District of Columbia permit absentee voting by servicemen.

Attacks on Van Dalsem Act Dismissed

Two more Republican-initiated lawsuits failed to dent the Van Dalsem Act Thursday.

Chancellor P. S. Cunningham dismissed a suit at Evening Shade (Sharp County) after the plaintiff testified that he named Democrats to serve the Republican Party as election judges and clerks.

Chancellor Ford Smith rejected another suit at Forrest City (St. Francis County) when the plaintiff testified that his list of judges and clerks were objected to by the Democratic members of the election commission on three grounds.

Mitt Bright, GOP commission member, told Smith that the objections were on grounds that the persons he named had not paid poll taxes, had served in the Democratic primary and in one case were "not sympathetic in our cause."

Aubrey Jackson, GOP member of the election commission in Sharp County, testified that he had Democrats on his list of judges and clerks.

The law, Act 477 of 1963, was introduced by Perry County Rep. Paul Van Dalsem.

Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett has interpreted the act to mean that in counties where no known or registered Republicans reside, the Democrats can name all election judges and clerks. This means that Republicans cannot name Democrats as election judges and clerks. Bennett has ruled.

Hope Church Wins Over Malvern

First Assembly of God, 322 North Main was the winner in the Sunday School contest with Malvern Assembly of God. The contest ran through Sunday, Oct. 25. The Hope church beat Malvern by about 50 points.

Rev. Willhite, Pastor of the local Assembly wishes to express his appreciation to a number of visitors, who helped to make the victory possible.

Pastor Willhite announced that he will be speaking on the subject, "The Ballot Box" this Sunday morning in the 11:00 Worship Service. "The fate of the nation, the will of God, and the will of man are in the ballot box. It's fate is the fate of America, and there are many enemies who seek to destroy it."

The public is invited to come and hear this pre-election sermon.

Deterioration in Viet Nam, Taylor Says

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor said today there has been "deterioration and a loss of momentum in recent weeks and months" in South Viet Nam.

But despite lack of progress in various programs here during the last year, "in the field, the operations against the Viet Cong have gone surprisingly well," he added.

Taylor made the comments in an interview with Columbia Broadcasting System, in which the main question was how Taylor felt about developments since the overthrow of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime a year ago.

Because of the political instability over the past year, Taylor said, "There has been no opportunity in this period to carry forward methodically and systematically the programs which we had laid out at this time last year."

Taylor said he had high hopes that the new civilian government would be able to produce a strong, stable regime. But he said only time would tell.

Asked whether he thought the tide in fighting could be turned without taking the war outside Viet Nam, Taylor said much would depend on the stability of the future government in carrying out existing plans before anything new is tried.

"I think we can go a lot farther with what we are doing before we consider any drastic changes. If this is not enough, plainly we must consider other ways of winning the victory."

War on Waste Is Johnson's Latest Promise

By FRANK CORMIER

DOVER, Del. (AP) — President Johnson, making a final appeal for votes in the Northeast, said today he will "declare a war on waste" throughout government.

Johnson, in a campaign talk prepared for delivery from the steps of Dover's old statehouse, said he will make war against needless federal spending, economic waste caused by recessions and the waste of war — "most awful waste of all."

The President lined up speaking dates in Dover and Wilmington, Del., a big swing through New York's suburban Nassau County and an appearance tonight at a big Democratic rally in Madison Square Garden.

In making two stops in Delaware, Johnson hoped to boost the election chances of Democratic Gov. Elbert N. Carvel who seeks the senate seat of Republican John J. Williams. It was Williams who was instrumental in winning adoption of a resolution that led to the Senate investigation of the activities of Bobby Baker, once one of Johnson's close associates.

The President Friday night wound up a final campaign tour of the Midwest with an appearance before a roaring partisan crowd that filled Chicago Stadium after a colorful "torchlight parade" down West Madison Street—including the city's skid row.

The stadium crowd turned out for the democratic organization of Mayor Richard J. Daley interrupted Johnson with applause — accompanied by appropriate organ music — after virtually every sentence.

Perhaps because of the persistent interruptions, which seemed automatic, Johnson for the first time in the campaign stuck to his prepared text, offering none of the off-the-cuff observations that have become a hallmark of his campaign appearances.

In Chicago, Johnson plugged for his anti-poverty program and reported that in 1960, as Senate democratic leader, he voted 96 per cent of the time for the foreign policy proposals of Republican president Dwight D. Eisenhower. He said Sen. Barry Goldwater voted against Eisenhower 76 per cent of the time.

Earlier, at an airport rally in heavily-Republican Rockford, Ill., Johnson made a strong appeal for GOP votes and said:

"I do believe that good Republicans want for their party tolerant leadership in the tradition of Lincoln, humane leadership in the tradition of Hoover, experienced leadership in the tradition of Eisenhower."

"In the days to come, I believe that it is this responsible heritage of the Republican party that will emerge — to regroup, reform and return to the principles of high patriotic responsibility that mark the Republican party's history."

5 Arrested in Ole Miss Campus Riot

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Five students were arrested today after a campus football turmoil flared into violent turmoil at the University of Mississippi.

The uproar combined a panty raid, police stoning and car rolling.

The unoccupied car belonged to Burns Tatum, campus police chief. It was rolled down a hill where it smashed into a fire plug.

No details on the arrests were disclosed immediately.

"I'm not going to give their names to the papers," Sheriff Boyce Bratton said, "we might have some more arrests. We're still investigating."

Pat Smith, a university spokesman, said school authorities were on campus taking names during the ruckus. All those reported will have to face disciplinary action before the student council, he said.

The raid began in a good humored vein, but turned bitter as the night wore on. Students peppered police with bricks and bottles. A brick opened a gash on one officer's head.

Rockefeller Has Student Backing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Winthrop Rockefeller's popularity among college students was demonstrated in three more straw votes Thursday.

The Republican defeated Gov. Orval E. Faubus 393-243 at Southern State College at Magnolia, 125-61 at Little Rock University and 400-73 at Hendrix College at Conway.

President Johnson defeated Barry Goldwater 316-159 at Hendrix, but lost 358-276 at Southern State and 99-81 at LRU.

Europes Red Parties Are Kept in Line

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — European Communist parties are falling into line behind the new Soviet leadership, apparently accepting Kremlin explanations that Nikita Khrushchev was removed for bungling in the Cuban crisis, the rift with Peking and an assortment of other failures.

Official Kremlin statements on Khrushchev's removal are couched in general terms, but Communist sources said a document containing 29 charges — including those on Cuba and Red China — is being circulated in Soviet Communist party units.

The Hungarian Communist party was the first to endorse Khrushchev's removal, declaring last Sunday that he had made "regrettable mistakes." Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka on Wednesday said the Soviet party's leaders had "grounds" to accept Khrushchev's resignation.

A French Communist delegation sent to Moscow to obtain explanations for the power shift returned home Thursday after issuing a communique emphasizing solidarity of the French and Soviet Reds.

The communique made no mention of Khrushchev. But it said the two parties had frank and friendly talks and would "continue consolidating the fraternal relations, bonds of traditional friendship and mutual confidence, which exist between" them.

An Italian Communist delegation began meeting with Soviet leaders after the French left. Communist sources said the Italians also wanted to ask about Khrushchev.

The Soviet Communists will begin talks with a Danish delegation Friday. An Austrian delegation also is in Moscow. John Gollan, general secretary of Britain's Communist party, said in London he and George Matthews, editor of the London Daily Worker, would go to Moscow next week to "discuss replacement of Mr. Khrushchev and problems in Soviet policy."

Goldwater, Not Afraid of Polls, Heads South

By WALTER R. MEARS

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, scoffing at polls that rate him a loser, stages a final vote hunting mission to the South today on the last long leg of an 80,000-mile presidential campaign.

The Arizona Republican wound up perhaps the most hectic of his campaign swings early today. He crossed the continent, crisscrossed the Southwest and ran into everything from an empty jet fuel truck to a heckling helicopter.

On today's campaign docket: —A rally in his native Phoenix.

—A jump over to San Antonio, in the state that experienced, Goldwater said, "one of the darkest elections in our history" in 1948 when President Johnson won his U.S. Senate seat by an 87 vote margin.

—A Southern finale in Columbia, S.C. It is to be beamed across the South on a 13-state television hookup.

In Cheyenne, Wyo., the truck refueling his jet airliner ran out of gas. It went for more and got caught in a traffic jam.

The helicopter buzzed a Mexican-American rally in Los Angeles Friday night, bearing a light-bulb sign that spelled out "in your guts you know he's nuts." Republicans drove it off with the glare of a searchlight.

Although Goldwater derided surveys that show him trailing, he cited a favorable sampling on the issues, and used it as the theme for his speeches in Las Vegas, Nev., Tucson, Ariz., and at Los Angeles.

"I've had a feeling for the last two or three weeks that we are going to win this thing," he said. "I know the polls don't agree with me, but they never have."

Goldwater boasted of his crowds. "On quite a few occasions we have actually outpolled the President of the United States, which is something we shouldn't be doing," he said.

He said more people should want to see the President than a senator from Arizona.

Living Cost Rises Again in September

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs rose two-tenths of one per cent in September, resuming an upward trend broken briefly in August, the Labor Department said today.

The increase took the government's consumer price index to 108.4. This means it took $10.84 last month to purchase typical consumer items that could be bought for $10 in the 1957-58 period on which the index is based.

President Johnson had already announced the rise in prices in a Detroit speech in advance of the release here by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Higher food, housing and clothing prices contributed to the over-all September rise in the index.

Food prices were three-tenths of one per cent higher because of rises in meat and egg prices. Meats went up 2.8 per cent from August, largely because of Midwest farmers withholding livestock from the market in an effort to get more money, the bureau said.

Fresh fruits and vegetables dropped 7 per cent, but were still about 7 per cent higher than a year ago.

Over-all, food prices were 1.7 per cent higher than in September 1963.

One notable development in September was a slight drop in the cost of medical care, the first since 1949.

The drop was one-tenth of one per cent. Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said it seemed to reflect a slowing down of the long-term rise in medical costs, which have gone up faster than any other item in the price index for many years.

The September decrease was largely in drug prices, he said. Housing costs went up two-tenths of one per cent, reflecting higher ownership costs and increases in fuel oil, textile house furnishings, furniture, and housekeeping services and supplies.

Third, The industries now located in Hope are constantly on the outlook for skilled people to replace retiring employees. It is an expensive and long time procedure to train these employees from the very beginning. The Trade School would provide the basic training for these badly needed employees in our local industries permitting them to expand many months earlier.

Fourth, New industries looking for locations are primarily interested in the source and availability of skilled, trained employees, for their proposed plants. In many cases they can't wait to train these employees in their new factories. This is one of the main reasons we have lost industries seeking to locate here. The proof of this fact is that most new industries are locating in Arkansas where the present Trade Schools or Colleges are located. They expect to draw on these schools or colleges for employees.

Fifth, The location of the Trade School here will affect the economy of the entire city and county. The faculty and students buying power will greatly increase the overall income of our community. Expansion of present industries and new industries will rapidly expand the growth and prosperity of our area. And we will be able to keep our young people, the greatest asset we have, in our own area, by their being provided better job opportunities.

We have competition from other counties in getting this school and must leave no stone unturned in our endeavor to get it here.

The Chamber of Commerce is strongly behind this and will need the help of everyone. The Chamber of Commerce has several sites available for inspection by the Site Committee, when they come here late in November. No city has better churches and recreation facilities for the students. Our retail merchants can and will provide an excellent source of merchandise for their daily needs. Our manufacturing plants are ready and willing to cooperate.

I trust everyone in Hempstead County and especially Hope will use their efforts to see that this school is located here.

Respectfully,
ROY ANDERSON

Sari Sandor was Hugo's kid sister, three years younger than Bud. Craig remembered her as a quiet, flowerlike girl, delicate and wistful, with large, dark eyes in a finely sensitive face. Through the Sandors' social activities she had met many attractive young men, but very few of them passed Hugo's scrutiny, and even then he was so critical of them and so watchful of her that those she was allowed to date soon gave up.

"Sari met him at one of our parties. He had already tried to cultivate Hugo on the lot. Hugo disliked and distrusted him—somehow Hugo had suspected from the first he was a drug addict. At the party Win poured all his attention on Sari and she, the little innocent, was very much taken with him. It was something you couldn't miss seeing—some of our guests laughed about it among themselves, it was so obvious—and Hugo was furious. Afterward, he forbade Sari ever to see Win Shepard again. Of course this was the wrong way for Hugo to handle it—he only made it worse. Sari began seeing Win Shepard secretly.

"Essentially this was Win Shepard's doing. He'd actually had the gall to ask Hugo for a leading part, but Hugo wouldn't listen. He thought with Sari's help, because Hugo adored Sari so much, he could break down Hugo's resistance.

"Hugo learned the truth. Sari was terrified. She screamed at Hugo that she was going to marry Win—the very worst thing she could have said. Hugo lost all control of himself. He gave Win a frightful beating. While Win was lying there on the floor, too afraid to move, too afraid of getting killed, Hugo searched through the apartment until he found what he was looking for. Right there on the spot, with Win listening, he phoned the police and denounced Win as an addict. He dragged Sari away quickly, so as to keep her away from the police. He brought her home and locked her in her room. The next day Hugo learned that the minute he was outside Win Shepard's door, even before the police could get there, Win had rushed out of that apartment, leaving his needles and his drugs, the evidence.

"Sari was in a state of collapse. Hugo put her in a rest home there in Los Angeles. He ordered her to be watched day and night, but there had to come a minute when everyone was looking the other way. Sari had found a chance the third night. Somehow she slipped out—ran away. Hugo hired detectives—but nothing. Since then there has not been one word from her—not a single trace."

Craig backed out of the driveway and turned toward the broad curve leading into Valencia Avenue. He had driven only a hundred yards or so when a moving reflection in the rear-view mirror caught his attention.

Two Counties Off Jobless Area

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., said Thursday that Calhoun and Ouachita counties have been taken off the redevelopment list.

Harris told the Camden Chamber of Commerce that U.S. Labor Department reports show continuing improvement in employment in the Camden area.

Denies Money From Las Vegas Casinos

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP) — The president of Churches United Against Gambling said here Thursday that a report that Las Vegas casinos were contributing to CUAG is "a barefaced lie."

Dr. Ralph A. Phelps Jr., CUAG head, said he first heard the rumor several weeks ago. The group hopes to bring on the defeat of proposed Amendment 55, which would legalize casino gambling in Garland County.

Dinner wines generally are made from naturally fermented grape juice.

"Whatever your purpose was, it doesn't make sense and you have gone too far. I'm fed up with you. I don't want to do it this way, but you're forcing me to fight dirty."

"Meaning what?"

"Gail, I'm sorry, but I can't help this. This sticky human bloodhound hasn't left me any choice." He had spoken to her without taking his eyes from Lew's sullen face. "I know about you—all about how you got yourself broken off the force and jailed. That qualifies you to rag innocent people, does it—may be in order to cover yourself?"

"DEAR ABBY"

DON'T WASTE TIME, LADY!

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: Four years ago my husband hired a pretty young secretary (married). I never paid much attention to her, although he did take her to dinner occasionally when he'd ask her to work late. I know they lunched together too, but I suppose many such luncheons are for the purpose of discussing business. Three weeks ago my husband received word that he was being transferred out of town. Now he tells me that this secretary is getting a divorce (no children) and is going with him! Abby, do you believe in a woman's intuition? He never mentioned that this woman was unhappy in her marriage. Why suddenly this? I have the feeling that something is going on. Is it my place to ask my husband if he has something to tell me? If he has, why should I make it easier for him?

WOMAN'S INTUITION

Dear Intuition: Yes, ask him if he has something to tell you, and don't worry about whether you are making it "too easy" for him. It will be easier for you than waiting and wondering. The sooner you find out, the better.

Dear Abby: I used to have beautiful natural blonde hair that hung down to my shoulders. My husband heard a man compliment me on my hair, and all I said to him was "Thank you," but when we got home my husband got mad and took a scissors and cut all my hair off one-quarter of an inch from my scalp. I don't think I can ever forgive him for this act. He has always been a very jealous man with a terrible temper, and I have seen his mmmash mirrors and furniture, but he never touched me before this. My hairdresser said it will take a year to grow three inches of hair, and in the meantime, I either have to get a wig or wear turbans all the time. What do you think a fitting punishment for a husband like mine should be?

NO HAIR

Dear No Hair: Punishment? I would insist that he be subjected to a mental examination. Next time he might not stop at the scalp.

Dear Abby: My friend and I are having an argument with our husbands. Last night it was very cold here in Indianapolis, Indiana. We noticed the policeman on the beat was without coat. Our husbands said policemen cannot put on their coats until they are given permission to in the fall. Furthermore, they have to wear their coats in the spring until they are so ordered to leave them off. Is this true? If so, we girls think it was a stupid regulation. Any man who is old enough to be a policeman shouldn't need permission to wear his coat, and take it off. Can you tell me if this is a regulation or not?

CAN'T BELIEVE IT

Dear Can't: I just called the Indianapolis, Indiana, Police Department and the captain told me it's true. But he said there is nothing in the regulations to prevent a policeman from wearing anything he wants to underneath his shirt—which was heart-warming.

Confidential To You: If you like the way things are going, VOTE. If you don't like the way things are going, VOTE. If you've never voted before, VOTE. (Don't be ashamed of your ignorance when you get there, they'll show you how.) If you won't have time after work to go home and clean up, go to the booth in your work clothes. Don't let anything or anybody keep you from voting. It will be the most important thing you will do all year.

NOTICE TO ALL VOTERS . . .

YOUR VOTE WILL BE SAFEGUARDED IN THIS ELECTION! For the first time in Arkansas history, we can guarantee that you can cast your vote in PRIVACY, and that your vote will be counted.

WHY? Because the Republican Party and other leading civic-minded people have:

- ★ PROVIDED Voting Booths to at least 70 counties.
- ★ SUPPLIED new locked ballot boxes to many counties.

AND IN ADDITION, your Republican Election Commissioners will

- ★ SEE that seals on ballot boxes are not broken.
- ★ INSIST on proper and honest counting of ballots.
- ★ MAKE SURE that ballot boxes are watched until the ballots are finally destroyed in compliance with the law.
- ★ GUARANTEE that the way you voted will remain your secret.

IF YOU appreciate our efforts, then help us by knowing your own voting rights, and by sending us a contribution to help defray the tremendous costs of these guarantees of your freedom.

Camden Proves No Problem for Bobcats

By CARTER HARDAGE
HOPE STAR SPORTSWRITER

The Bobcats scored in every period last night and soundly whipped the Camden Panthers 26-6 to clear one more obstacle in their path to the 4AA championship.

Camden, perhaps a little overrated, had their strong running attack completely stifled and had to go to the air for their single TD.

Bobcat head coach Alan Howard, who had been in the hospital all week, showed up at the dressing room right before game time. When asked about this, he replied, "I'm a football coach. I had to be here."

Coach Howard was in high praise of assistant Freddie Glaze. "Coach Glaze did a terrific job. All the credit should go to him and to the boys."

A Parent's Night crowd saw Hope take early command of the game, scoring on first possession.

The Bobcats got the pigskin on their own 26 after a punt and marched the length of the field in 13 plays. Jerry Burnett capped the drive by fighting his way over from the six.

Burnett's first try for point after was no good, but an off-side penalty on Camden moved the Cats half the distance to the goal and gave them another chance. This time they cashed in, and Hope led 7-0 with 3:56 left in the first quarter.

The Panthers got the kick, but couldn't do much with the ball and punted it back to the Cats. This scoring drive was to start on the 29.

On the first play from scrimmage, Buddy Jordan went to the airways to find Johnny Samuels for 39 yards, but only after a little fancy footwork by Samuels. The quarter then changed with the score still at 7-0, Hope.

On the first play of the second period, Jordan again went to the air, this time to Stan Parris, who caught the bomb on the 10. He then cut inside Aslin and Burnett, who took out the last defenders and cleared the way on the 44 yard romp to paydirt. PAT attempt was wide, and the score stood 13-0.

The Bobcats threatened once more in the half, but ran out of downs on the 30.

Hope started the second half at their own 40, after Camden had kicked out of bound at the 15. This is in accordance with a new 4AA ruling.

With Hope second and 20, Camden put a big rush on Jordan, who threw to Blinikewitz, who willingly took over for Camden at the 50.

The next play, however, Dick Willis recovered a Panther fumble to set things right again.

This time there was no stopping the Cats, and they went the required yardage in 12 plays, behind the running of Burnett and Massanelli's passing. Burnett knifed over left tackle from the 2 for the tally. He then added the point and the Cats led 20-0 with 5:22 left in the third quarter.

After an exchange of the ball, Camden got possession on their own 11. From here, Bourgoin unlimbered the ol' passing arm and moved the Panthers out to the Hope 49 in a matter of six plays.

With a fourth and six situation Camden went for it and sent the big bomb to King, who sped down the sidelines for the Panthers' only dent in the scoring column. Massanelli blocked the PAT, and the score stood at 20-6 with just over 11 minutes to go.

A little provoked at themselves for letting Camden score, the Bobcats marched 60 yards in six snappy plays after the kick. They tallied on a 24 yard pass from Massanelli to Parris, who fell over. Burnett again kicked the extra point, and it was Hope 27 Camden 6.

The Camden regulars and the Hope subs battled out the remaining nine minutes.

In the individual rushing, Burnett led with 10-60, Wallace was 8-27, Massanelli 2-13, Eastlerling 5-11, Ingram 3-10, Thompson 2-8, J. Samuels 3-6, B. Samuels, 1-1, Strong 5-(-4) and Jordan - (-4).

The sea horse served as the model for the knight used in chess.

FALLING LEAVES

...usher in the season of Thanksgiving. The time when white frosts and flaky snows cover the earth. Isaiah 35 speaks of this mirage, but we know the Lord reigneth, and the parched ground shall become a pool as He said. Then, since all must come to judgment and be rewarded according to his personal behavior; and since eternity is so very long ...it is urgent that we approach, with much concern, our rendezvous with death. There is no variableness in God's cause nor in His justice. Support His church regularly and worship God every day.

You In The Church
The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

Ministers of This Area and Sponsors of This Page Invite You to Share in the Worship Services of Your Church. Pray, Work and Live for God.

Faith will overcome the most miserable circumstances

faith will light up your soul in the darkest night
